5. (CIA Internal Use - JSW) Received telephone calls from Ed McCabe at the White House and Charlie Haskins on the National Security Council staff, both inquiring concerning the information they had received [redacted]

[redacted] I explained that over the weekend the Subcommittee staff had inquired of me if we could store this material since it was classified and that it had subsequently been returned. This seemed to explain it satisfactorily except that it does raise the question of how they have been storing other classified materials. I will pursue this with the Committee.

6. (CIA Internal Use - JSW) Following discussion at the Deputies' meeting yesterday, I telephoned Robert Smart suggesting that if the Committee wished a further briefing from the Agency before Congress adjourned that we felt we had some interesting matters to discuss with them. Mr. Smart thought possibly the Committee would be interested and would be in touch with me later.

7. (Unclassified - GLC) Talked with Mike Mapes, on the staff of the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, concerning the proposed visit of a Soviet hydro-electric power delegation to this country. [redacted] had asked whether the Senate Committee was the sponsor for this group. Mapes indicated that while Senator Frank Moss has engaged in some correspondence with the Soviets on this the Hill is not sponsoring the trip.

8. (Unclassified - GLC) Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and asked if we could provide the Subcommittee with a report or testimony giving the detailed background on how the Soviets "whipped up" the student riots in Tokyo. He added that while the Subcommittee could conduct hearings on its own they would prefer to have reliable testimony from the Agency.
